TWO RICH YOUTHS CONFESS FRANKS' MURDER

"KILLED HIM IN A SPIRIT OF ADVENTURE"

KIDNAPED BOY, STRUCK HIM ON THE HEAD, CHOKED HIM

GAVE HIM ETHER, THREW HYDROCHLORIC ACID IN HIS FACE

(By United Press)

Chicago, May 31.—"We killed Robert Franks for the spirit of adventure," Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, wealthy Chicago college students, confessed to police today.

The two youths, sons of wealthy Chicago families, made a complete confession of the murder to State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, bringing to an end one of the most extraordinary criminal cases in Chicago's police records. Their story of the murder and kidnaping was a fantastic tale of longing for adventure.

The crime, they admitted, was plotted more than nine months ago and all the details were carefully planned to avoid detection.

"We had read of kidnaping adventures and demands for ransom," Leopold told authorities in explaining the crime.

"We had no need of money, of course, but thought it would be a ripping good adventure to kidnap some wealthy boy and try to get some money for it.

At first we didn't plan murder, but we decided it would be best to play safe and put our victim out of the way.

"We bought all the equipment we needed. Then our next task was to select a victim. We wanted to get some boy whose father had plenty of money. We decided to look around Harvard school, where all the students were wealthy. We selected Robert as our victim."

Leopold then recited the details of the kidnaping and the slaying of the youth, showing the remarkable plan that they had laid.

"We rented an automobile and went to Harvard school just as the boys were coming out. We called Robert and invited him for a ride. That part was easy.

"When we got him into the car we hit him over the head with a chisel we had prepared. It was wrapped in tape, so that it wouldn't make a sharp cut in the boy's skull.

"Our next move was to choke him. We stuffed rags in his mouth and then gave him ether which we had stolen from the chemistry laboratory at college.

"Then we drove out south of the city limits and carried the boy into a thicket. Here we undressed him, choked him to death and threw hydrochloric acid on his face. We did this in an attempt to disfigure him so badly that if the body were found it could not be identified.

"We buried the shoes and buried the clothes. I think you could find the shoes now if you looked."

Leopold admitted it was he who wrote the ransom letter demanding $10,000 of Jacob Franks, the victim's father. "We thought it was a right smart piece of work," Leopold told police, "but apparently it helped to lead to our downfall."

Capture of Leopold was brought about by three Chicago detectives—William Crot, Frank Johnson and James Courtland. Their work was long and tiresome, and for many days they feared that they were following poor leads. Today they were praised by State's Attorney Crowe and his staff for one of the most clever pieces of detective work on record.

Aside from the ransom letter the only clue was a pair of horn-rimmed glasses found near the body of the slain youth.

Robert never wore glasses, his father told police, and it was at once suspected that they had been dropped by the murderer. The three detectives went to a large optical house and learned the name of Dr. William Deutsch, an eye specialist who sent most of work to the particular firm.

Dr. Deutsch examined the glasses and said he had prescribed such glasses to three different people. He gave the detectives their names. One was a prominent businessman, one was a woman, and the name of the third was Nathan Leopold.

The detectives examined the man and the woman and were satisfied neither had any connection with the crime. Then they came to Leopold.

Leopold at first stoutly denied that he had ever worn glasses. The officers returned to the doctor to verify their information and then called once more upon Leopold.

This time the boy admitted he once wore glasses like those found near the scene of the murder, but said he had lost them "many months ago." At this point he admitted that he frequented the lonely waste lands where the body was found. He said he was a student of nature.

Loeb was then called. The two youths were questioned as to their movements on the day of the slaying. They told a story of going to a public park on the other side of the city and watching for new spring birds. This was followed, they said, by a "gym party."

They went out in Leopold's automobile, they said.

Courtland, Johnson and Crot were about to give up this lead and set Leopold and Loeb free when they decided to question Sven Englund, the Leopold chauffeur. Englund said the Leopold car was not taken from the garage on the day of the crime.

Englund's story was told last night. The two boys were again called for questioning.

At one o'clock this morning the two were called into the private office of State's Attorney Crowe. When they were told of Englund's story they became nervous. Their alibi was broken. It was the first time they lost their feeling of confidence.

At 1:30 newspaper men were told that a confession would be forthcoming soon.

Then followed long hours of grilling. The two youths were questioned again and again on all the details of their movements and finally—shortly before dawn—they made complete confessions.

"We were just plumb damned fools," Leopold said. "We thought it was great sport. We thought it would give us a huge thrill."

"Well," and he smiled through beads of perspiration on his face, "we got our thrill, but now where are we?"

After giving the two youths their breakfast officers took them to the scene of the murder to re-enact the crime.

Leopold is the son of the millionaire head of the Morris Paper Box company. Loeb's father is vice-president of the Sears, Roebuck company.

Jacob Franks, father of the victim, was a millionaire manufacturer—once a pawnshop proprietor.

The combined wealth of the three families involved was estimated at $25,000,000 today.

OPENS PROGRESSIVE DRIVE FOR ACTION ON LEGISLATION

WANTS RAILROAD LABOR BOARD ABOLISHED—DEMOCRATS AIDING

(By United Press)

Washington, May 31. — Senator Robert M. LaFollette returned to the capital today and opened the progressive drive for action on progressive legislation by forcing the senate interstate commerce committee to report the Howell-Barkley bill abolishnig the railroad labor board.

This measure, considered one of the chief points in the progressive program for revisionary railroad legislation, has slumbered in the senate committee since the opening of congress, and there seemed little hope that it would be acted upon.

The vote was 9 to 3, LaFollette rallying democrats to aid progressives in favor of reporting the bill.

After the committee session LaFollette held a conference with the democratic chairman, Smith, whom he aided in electing as the only democratic chairman of a committee in congress under a republican administration.

Plans were laid for action on other progressive rail measures.

LaFollette seemed in good health, though the deep wrinkles around his eyes betrayed the effects of his long illness.

He met his old comrades in jovial humor, but declined statements to newspaper men regarding his intentions.

His first act upon returning from Atlantic City was to round up progressives on the interstate commerce committee for a vote on the Howell-Barkley bill. The bill abolishes the present railroad labor board and substitutes a series of arbitration boards to handle labor disputes.

HOG FLU CAUSES FARMERS TROUBLE

(By United Press)

St. Paul, May 31—"Hog flu" is causing swine men a lot of trouble, according to reports at University Farm.

Cold, damp weather has been especially hard on little porkers, according to reports, but animals more than a year old are said to be immune. The disease is contagious according to Dr. W. A. Billings, veterinary specialist of the extension division. It takes about 72 hours from the time of infection for symptoms to develop. The symptoms are complete loss of appetite, high temperature, rapid breathing, coughing and reddened eyes which may show a discharge.

The treatment Dr. Billings recommended is reduction of the rations, comfortable housing in warm, clean, well bedded quarters, and plenty of water and fresh air.

So far as is known, he said, treatment with vaccines has not been very successful.

Abducted Chicago Boy, Brutally Murdered, and Home of Jacob Franks, His Millionaire Father

The abduction and murder of Robert Franks, 13 year old son of the retired president of the Rockford Watch Company, aroused the entire city of Chicago. The police believe that the demand for $10,000 ransom was only a "blind" and that the boy was dead when a telephone message was received at the beautiful Franks home demanding ransom. A post mortem indicated that the boy had been mistreated before being slain. It is thought he was killed because he recognized his assailant.

H. A. SODINI IS ROBBED OF $20,000

CASH AND GEMS TAKEN FROM SLEEPING CAR BERTH

MR. SODINI WAS ENROUTE TO CHICAGO, WHEN ROBBERY OCCURRED

H. A. Sodini, here mentioned, is well known in Brainerd, where he anticipated investing $20,000 in a new hotel proposition.

St. Paul, May 31—H. A. Sodini, owner of several large apartment houses in St. Paul and Minneapolis, was robbed of $20,000 in cash and jewelry on a New York Central Pullman enroute to Chicago, according to a telegraphic dispatch.

Nearly all of the loot was in jewelry. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sodini had several large diamonds.

Before retiring Mr. Sodini put their jewelry in the pocket of his trousers and then laid them on the window side of the berth. When they woke up in Toledo the trousers and their contents were missing.

Someone apparently had stolen the trousers by reaching across Sodini as he slept. The robbery was discovered at Toledo, but it may have been committed long before the train raeched that place. Every cent Mr. Sodini had with him was taken. This morning he borrowed $5 from the conductor for breakfast.

Mr. Sodini left for New York on a business trip with his wife about 10 days ago. He was to have returned today or tomorrow.

Mr. Sodini nearly always wore two or three large diamond rings besides a valuable watch and stickpin. He often wore the rings on a watch chain. Nearly all the jewelry was insured.

MAL DAUGHERTY GRANTED HABEAS CORPUS WRIT

NEED NOT PRODUCE BANK BOOKS FOR COMMITTEE

JUDGE A. M. COCHRANE GIVES HIS DECISION TODAY

(By United Press)

Cincinnati, O., May 31. — Mal Daugherty of Washington Courthouse, O., was granted a writ of habeas corpus by Judge A. M. Cochran in United States district court today in his attempt to avoid testifying before the senate committee investigating the administration of his brother, Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general. This means that Daugherty, whose bank records were sought by the senate probers, need not produce them for scrutiny by the committee.

Judge Cochran held that the only ground upon which Mal Daugherty's arrest by the senate could be approved was that of impeachment of the former attorney general. He held, however, that the senate can only try and not impeach officials of the government.

"It is not within the senate's power to harrass, annoy, put in fear, render unfit or possibly drive from office any such officers, high or low, by instituting impeachment proceedings against him."

GOVERNMENT TO TAKE AN APPEAL

Washington, May 31.—An appeal from the decision of the federal court in Cincinnati granting a writ of habeas corpus to Mal Daugherty will be taken by the government, Chairman Brookhart of the senate investigating committee, said today, when informed of the court's action.

Brookhart indicated that the committee would confer later with Attorney General Stone regarding the Mal Daugherty case.

DAUGHERTY WILL BE SUBPOENAED

Washington, May 31.—Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, will be subpoenaed to appear before the senate investigating committee June 4 to defend himself against the serious charges that have been made against him during the present investigation.

In making this announcement Chairman Brookhart said that Daugherty must waive immunity or the committee will not hear him.

MINNESOTA DEMOCRATS IN SESSION IN ST. PAUL

St. Paul, May 31—Minnesota democrats were in session here today. Delegates to the national convention in New York city next month were to be chosen.

Pre-convention dope was that an uninstructed delegation would be sent to New York.

Supporters of William G. McAdoo, however, were prepared to make a hard fight for a delegation instructed to vote for him.

Friends of Gov. Al. Smith of New York were prepared to block any move by McAdoo adherents they claimed. They want an uninstructed delegation, which will be able to swing in any direction the tide goes.

Joseph Wolf, Staples, chairman of the state central committee, was in charge of the gathering today.

McADOO MEN LOSE IN THE FIRST SKIRMISH

LOSE OUT IN ST. PAUL CONTEST FOR TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

FARRINGTON BEATS THEIR MAN McCARTHY, 527 TO 328

(By United Press)

St. Paul, May 31.—Supporters of William Gibbs McAdoo for president were badly beaten at the start of the democratic state convention today when it came to naming a temporary chairman.

McAdoo delegates put up C. C. McCarthy of Grand Rapids. Ray G. Farrington of Ortonville beat him, 527 to 328.

Farrington was the choice of those who want an uninstructed delegation to go to the national convention in New York, and it is generally understood that those favoring an uninstructed delegation will boost Governor Al Smith of New York for the presidential nomination.

Anna Dickey Olesen, first woman nominee for United States senator, who ran two years ago, charged that "the long arm of Tammany Hall has reached out into Minnesota and is trying to dictate the conduct of today's convention." "We want an unbossed convention," she declared, "and we want the best elements of our party to rule, but Tammany Hall is busy at its old game."

Mrs. Olesen is an ardent McAdoo supporter and also a vigorous worker in the drives.

The severe licking given McAdoo at the outset indicated the state will send an Al Smith delegation to New York, which will also be a wet one.

Kansas City, Mo., May 31.—Three bandits held up two messengers for the Argentine State bank here today and escaped with $20,000. The holdup was almost an exact duplication of a holdup of the same two messengers who were robbed of the same amount on November 15, 1923.

Chicago, May 31.—"We killed Robert Franks for the spirit of adventure," Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, wealthy Chicago college students, confessed to police today.

Courtland, Johnson and Crot were about to give up this lead and set Leopold and Loeb free when they decided to question Sven Englund, the Leopold chauffeur. Englund said the Leopold car was not taken from the garage on the day of the crime.

Englund's story was told last night. The two boys were again called for questioning.

At one o'clock this morning the two were called into the private office of State's Attorney Crowe. When they were told of Englund's story they became nervous. Their alibi was broken. It was the first time they lost their feeling of confidence.

Brookhart indicated that the committee would confer later with Attorney General Stone regarding the Mal Daugherty case.

DAUGHERTY WILL BE SUBPOENAED

Washington, May 31.—Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, will be subpoenaed to appear before the senate investigating committee June 4 to defend himself against the serious charges that have been made against him during the present investigation.

In making this announcement Chairman Brookhart said that Daugherty must waive immunity or the committee will not hear him.

MINNESOTA DEMOCRATS IN SESSION IN ST. PAUL

St. Paul, May 31—Minnesota democrats were in session here today. Delegates to the national convention in New York city next month were to be chosen.

Pre-convention dope was that an uninstructed delegation would be sent to New York.

Supporters of William G. McAdoo, however, were prepared to make a hard fight for a delegation instructed to vote for him.

Friends of Gov. Al. Smith of New York were prepared to block any move by McAdoo adherents they claimed. They want an uninstructed delegation, which will be able to swing in any direction the tide goes.

Joseph Wolf, Staples, chairman of the state central committee, was in charge of the gathering today.

A. L. FINK IN CHARGES AIRED OVER VANDERLIP

FINK SAID HE WAS OFFERED MONEY FOR PERJURED TESTIMONY

MAKES STATEMENT AT SENATE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE

(By United Press)

Congress Today

Senate: Considers child labor amendment.
Daugherty investigation.
Muscle Shoals hearing.
Mayfield inquiry.
House: Considers McNary-Haugen farm relief bill.

Washington, May 31.—A. L. Fink of Buffalo, N. Y., today charged before the senate Daugherty investigating committee that Frank A. Vanderlip, New York financier, offered him $1,000 to give perjured testimony against President Coolidge before the committee. Wild disorder ensued in the committee room after Fink made his charges.

GASTON B. MEANS SCORES PRESIDENT

Washington, May 31.—President Coolidge committed "the most cowardly act a human ever perpetrated when he drove Harry Daugherty from office," Gaston B. Means declared today before the senate Daugherty investigating committee.

Means took the stand to undergo cross-examination by Daugherty's counsel, Paul Howland.

McADOO MEN LOSE IN THE FIRST SKIRMISH

LOSE OUT IN ST. PAUL CONTEST FOR TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

FARRINGTON BEATS THEIR MAN McCARTHY, 527 TO 328

(By United Press)

St. Paul, May 31.—Supporters of William Gibbs McAdoo for president were badly beaten at the start of the democratic state convention today when it came to naming a temporary chairman.

McAdoo delegates put up C. C. McCarthy of Grand Rapids. Ray G. Farrington of Ortonville beat him, 527 to 328.

Farrington was the choice of those who want an uninstructed delegation to go to the national convention in New York, and it is generally understood that those favoring an uninstructed delegation will boost Governor Al Smith of New York for the presidential nomination.

Anna Dickey Olesen, first woman nominee for United States senator, who ran two years ago, charged that "the long arm of Tammany Hall has reached out into Minnesota and is trying to dictate the conduct of today's convention." "We want an unbossed convention," she declared, "and we want the best elements of our party to rule, but Tammany Hall is busy at its old game."

Mrs. Olesen is an ardent McAdoo supporter and also a vigorous worker in the drives.

The severe licking given McAdoo at the outset indicated the state will send an Al Smith delegation to New York, which will also be a wet one.

Kansas City, Mo., May 31.—Three bandits held up two messengers for the Argentine State bank here today and escaped with $20,000. The holdup was almost an exact duplication of a holdup of the same two messengers who were robbed of the same amount on November 15, 1923.

Abducted Chicago Boy, Brutally Murdered, and Home of Jacob Franks, His Millionaire Father

The abduction and murder of Robert Franks, 13 year old son of the retired president of the Rockford Watch Company, aroused the entire city of Chicago. The police believe that the demand for $10,000 ransom was only a "blind" and that the boy was dead when a telephone message was received at the beautiful Franks home demanding ransom. A post mortem indicated that the boy had been mistreated before being slain. It is thought he was killed because he recognized his assailant.

Saturday about 6:30 o'clock in the evening, six girls in a Dodge touring car met with a slight accident that could have had serious results. The six Brainerd girls were coming from Bay Lake, it is said, and driving from Crosby to Ironton they went at a high rate of speed. When they came to the corner at the Spina hotel, the driver did not slow down and in turning did not straighten her wheels and as a result drove up on the side walk and broke the wooden railing around the basement next to the Smith Motor Co. garage. If the driver had not put on the brakes, the accident would doubtless have been a serious one. The bracket of the lights was broken, a fenedr bent and a tire punctured. The car was repaired by the Smith Motor Co. the same evening.—Ironton News.

The office of county treasurer will be open tonight for the payment of taxes. A penalty of 5 per cent attaches June 1 on all delinquent taxes.

DECISIONS STAND TEST OF SUPREME COURT

THE International Falls Journal, through its editor, Mr. Montgomery, pays the following tribute to Judge W. S. McClenahan of Brainerd:

"Judge McClenahan has returned to his home at Brainerd following adjournment of district court until June 5th. The judge is a candidate for another term on the bench, in which service he is concluding a period of twenty-four years.

"That he is without opposition is due to his high standing as a jurist and his sterling sincerity. During those twenty-four years his decisions have almost without exception withstood the tests of the supreme court, and in his administration of justice he has been both fearless and impartial. Judge McClenahan is well deserving of the honor of a clear field, and the district is indeed fortunate in that he has elected to continue his work on the bench."

This good opinion of the judge is shared throughout the district. It is always a pleasure to read the judge's decision in a case, as his English is of the pure, lucid style which even a layman unversed in law may easily understand. Judge McClenahan has twice or more been given the opportunity to sit on the state supreme court bench, but refused, preferring to serve in the district here where he has so many friends, where his home is located, and where most of the years of his life have been spent.

MORE CONVENTIONS, MORE TOURISTS, MORE BUSINESS

MORE conventions, more tourists, more business and more profits is the way the Hotel and Restaurant Kepeers' Association of St. Paul sizes up the situation in St. Paul, and the same picture is reflected in Brainerd.

Frank Moore, secretary of the association, declared that business men, as well as farmers, should "diversify their crops" and he classified the tourist and convention trade as St. Paul's greatest "cash crop."

St. Paul has already booked 60 conventions and estimates that the total for the year will be 125, with an attendance estimated at 125,000 persons. St. Paul also expects to entertain 40,000 tourists this year. It is estimated that the visitors brought for conventions and attracted as tourists will spend more than $3,000,000. It costs something to get the conventions, about 20 cents per capita per visitor, but there is no loss occasioned, as each, on the average, it is believed, will spend $5 or more in St. Paul.

FARMER'S WIFE HAS A LOT FULL OF TOIL

A FARM magazine recently sent out a questionnaire on "How Much is a Woman Worth?" A farmer's wife sent this comprehensive statement. She kept a record of her work on the farm and computed that in 30 years she had served 235,425 meals.

Other things she did include making 33,190 loaves of bread; baking 5,930 cakes and 7,960 pies; canning 1,550 quarts of fruit; raising 7,660 chickens; churning 5,450 pounds of butter; putting in 34,461 hours sweeping and scrubbing.

She estimated her labor as worth conservatively $115,485.50, not a cent of which she had collected. And she still loves her husband and all the children and wouldn't mind starting all over again, she said.

BORROWED PLUMAGE

"THE Bird of Paradise," which for years has been heralded as the work of Richard Walton Tully, now seems to have been borrowed plumage, so far as the reputed author is concerned. Mrs. Joseph P. Fendler brought suit against Oliver Morosco, the producer, and Tully, claiming royalties in connection with the well known stage story.

She claimed the play, written by Tully, was based upon one she submitted to Morosco many years ago. The defendant denied it, but the courts found in favor of Mrs. Fendler. A referee was appointed to fix the amount of damages, and no doubt, to arrive at an estimate, receipts of this most successful play will be taken cognizance of.

FINANCIAL READJUSTMENTS EFFECTED GRADUALLY

FOR the most part the bonus payment is in the form of insurance certificates rather than cash payments. Only after two years will the privilege of borrowing from the banks on the security of the certificates become operative, and the maximum sums that may be borrowed, starting at about 9 per cent of the face amount of the policies, will be on a gradually ascending scale.

Thus the financial readjustments made necessary, as well as the release of new purchasing power, may be effected gradually and without violent shock to business in general.

NORTHERN PACIFIC REVENUES GAINING

THE Northern Pacific railway company report for April shows gross revenues gaining a bit compared with last year, and expenses cut. This is revealed by the monthly financial statement prepared for the interstate commerce commission.

The operating revenues amounted to $7,309,212, an increase of $730,150 over April, 1923. The operating expenses were $6,038,196, nearly $1,000,000 less than last year. This made a net income of $1,042,999, compared with $933,349 for last year.

IN the old days the newspapers used to say that Bill Jones or somebody else made a "flying trip" some place and back. Now it's true, for wherever you look, somebody is flying to get somewhere, around the world or to the north pole. The flying trips are not spectacular, it's the unlooked for alighting that carries all the thrills.

BASEBALL has its master mind in the shape of "Jawn" McGraw, and pugilism, according to St. Paul newspapermen, has it in the shape of M. Descamps and Eddie Kane. The one handles Carpentier and the other Gibbons.

WHEN Major Frederick L. Martin collided with a mountain peak in Alaska, he broke his nose and smashed his airplane.

BANK ROBBERY BY FARM GIRL LAID TO 'LOVE-CHILD ROMANCE'

Peoria, Ill., May 29.—A blighted romance drove pretty Norma Anderson, 17-year-old farm girl, to commit her daring robbery of the Steenburg bank of Farmington, late yesterday, police believed today.

They are hunting for two men implicated by the girl.

Norma, with her 20-months-old "love child," walked into the bank, pointed a revolver at the cashier, forced him to turn over $1,146 and then at the point of a revolver, forced David Settles, son of Chief of Police Wessley Settles, to drive her out of town.

"Keep me in jail," Norma pleaded when she was captured. "I'm afraid I'll kill myself."

Chief Settles, who made the arrest, announced that the girl told him two men induced her to commit the robbery.

"I didn't do it for myself," Norma said. She refused to divulge the reason for the robbery, but Settles thinks the romance surrounding the "love child" was the real motive.

Police watched a house in Peoria all last night with the hope of arresting the two men involved by Norma.

SUMMER MAY BE COOL, MAYBE NOT

(By United Press)

St. Paul, May 29.—"The summer may be cool—and then again it may not be."

"A cold spring is a sign of a cool summer. But on the other hand an unpleasant spring may presage a hot summer.

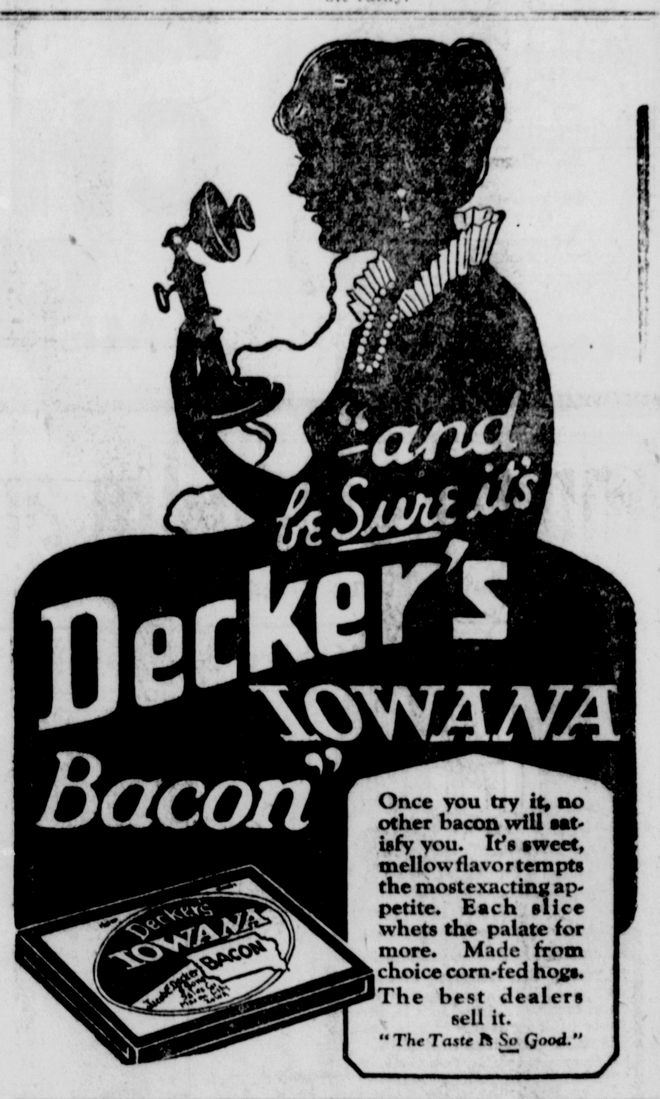

"In fact, about half the time, a cool spring means a hot summer—unless it turns out to be a cool summer. Of course, nobody expects the summer to go by without its hot days, but we probably won't have a long heat wave—but then, of course, we might."

This vast amount of definite information concerning the prospects for the summer was gleaned today from a long conversation with J. N. Ryker, St. Paul's meteorologist and weather prognosticator. The correspondent of the Brainerd Dispatch alternately wiped his brow and fanned himself as the forecaster talked.

"We meteorologists aren't clairvoyants, you know," opined Ryker, "and when you attempt to go further than a few days ahead of the weather, our guess is no better than the almanac's.

"I have no doubt we will have a pleasant summer — but anything might happen, and then too, it depends on what you call pleasant. You can't please all the folks all the time, you know."

The prognosticator was positive that May has been pretty cool and a bit rainy.

DECISIONS STAND TEST OF SUPREME COURT

THE International Falls Journal, through its editor, Mr. Montgomery, pays the following tribute to Judge W. S. McClenahan of Brainerd:

"Judge McClenahan has returned to his home at Brainerd following adjournment of district court until June 5th. The judge is a candidate for another term on the bench, in which service he is concluding a period of twenty-four years.

"That he is without opposition is due to his high standing as a jurist and his sterling sincerity. During those twenty-four years his decisions have almost without exception withstood the tests of the supreme court, and in his administration of justice he has been both fearless and impartial. Judge McClenahan is well deserving of the honor of a clear field, and the district is indeed fortunate in that he has elected to continue his work on the bench."

This good opinion of the judge is shared throughout the district. It is always a pleasure to read the judge's decision in a case, as his English is of the pure, lucid style which even a layman unversed in law may easily understand. Judge McClenahan has twice or more been given the opportunity to sit on the state supreme court bench, but refused, preferring to serve in the district here where he has so many friends, where his home is located, and where most of the years of his life have been spent.

MORE CONVENTIONS, MORE TOURISTS, MORE BUSINESS

MORE conventions, more tourists, more business and more profits is the way the Hotel and Restaurant Kepeers' Association of St. Paul sizes up the situation in St. Paul, and the same picture is reflected in Brainerd.

Frank Moore, secretary of the association, declared that business men, as well as farmers, should "diversify their crops" and he classified the tourist and convention trade as St. Paul's greatest "cash crop."

St. Paul has already booked 60 conventions and estimates that the total for the year will be 125, with an attendance estimated at 125,000 persons. St. Paul also expects to entertain 40,000 tourists this year. It is estimated that the visitors brought for conventions and attracted as tourists will spend more than $3,000,000. It costs something to get the conventions, about 20 cents per capita per visitor, but there is no loss occasioned, as each, on the average, it is believed, will spend $5 or more in St. Paul.

FARMER'S WIFE HAS A LOT FULL OF TOIL

A FARM magazine recently sent out a questionnaire on "How Much is a Woman Worth?" A farmer's wife sent this comprehensive statement. She kept a record of her work on the farm and computed that in 30 years she had served 235,425 meals.

Other things she did include making 33,190 loaves of bread; baking 5,930 cakes and 7,960 pies; canning 1,550 quarts of fruit; raising 7,660 chickens; churning 5,450 pounds of butter; putting in 34,461 hours sweeping and scrubbing.

She estimated her labor as worth conservatively $115,485.50, not a cent of which she had collected. And she still loves her husband and all the children and wouldn't mind starting all over again, she said.

BORROWED PLUMAGE

"THE Bird of Paradise," which for years has been heralded as the work of Richard Walton Tully, now seems to have been borrowed plumage, so far as the reputed author is concerned. Mrs. Joseph P. Fendler brought suit against Oliver Morosco, the producer, and Tully, claiming royalties in connection with the well known stage story.

She claimed the play, written by Tully, was based upon one she submitted to Morosco many years ago. The defendant denied it, but the courts found in favor of Mrs. Fendler. A referee was appointed to fix the amount of damages, and no doubt, to arrive at an estimate, receipts of this most successful play will be taken cognizance of.

FINANCIAL READJUSTMENTS EFFECTED GRADUALLY

FOR the most part the bonus payment is in the form of insurance certificates rather than cash payments. Only after two years will the privilege of borrowing from the banks on the security of the certificates become operative, and the maximum sums that may be borrowed, starting at about 9 per cent of the face amount of the policies, will be on a gradually ascending scale.

Thus the financial readjustments made necessary, as well as the release of new purchasing power, may be effected gradually and without violent shock to business in general.

NORTHERN PACIFIC REVENUES GAINING

THE Northern Pacific railway company report for April shows gross revenues gaining a bit compared with last year, and expenses cut. This is revealed by the monthly financial statement prepared for the interstate commerce commission.

The operating revenues amounted to $7,309,212, an increase of $730,150 over April, 1923. The operating expenses were $6,038,196, nearly $1,000,000 less than last year. This made a net income of $1,042,999, compared with $933,349 for last year.

IN the old days the newspapers used to say that Bill Jones or somebody else made a "flying trip" some place and back. Now it's true, for wherever you look, somebody is flying to get somewhere, around the world or to the north pole. The flying trips are not spectacular, it's the unlooked for alighting that carries all the thrills.

BASEBALL has its master mind in the shape of "Jawn" McGraw, and pugilism, according to St. Paul newspapermen, has it in the shape of M. Descamps and Eddie Kane. The one handles Carpentier and the other Gibbons.

WHEN Major Frederick L. Martin collided with a mountain peak in Alaska, he broke his nose and smashed his airplane.

COUNTRY CLUB OPENS SEASON

Tournament Played on Links on Memorial Day Afternoon

18 MEN IN THE MEDAL PLAY

Rev. Father Remmis, Noted Athlete, Leads Field With 91 for 18 Holes

The Brainerd Country Club officially opened its season on the afternoon of Memorial Day with a tournament at the club's links. Ideal weather and grounds in fine condition brought out a record attendance.

Eighteen took part in the men's medal play, and demonstrated that they had not lost their prowess over the winter months. Father Remmis, one of the new recruits, led the field with 91 for 18 holes. W. R. Hiller was just behind with 94, and Edward J. Egan and Mal Clark with 98 each.

The tournament committee attempted to fix handicaps, commensurate with the skill of the individual's ability, but owing to the fact that little playing has been done this season, and few score cards handed in, the committee was more handicapped than the players.

O. A. Peterson won the tournament with a gross 108, handicap 36, making him a net 72, which is par. It is hoped that every player will from now on leave his score card with the ground keeper. It takes but little time to do this, but it gives the committee something upon which to work.

The ladies, too, were out in full force, and played nine holes. Mrs. C. G. Nordin took home the prize with a score of 66. A. C. Weber won a keenly fought putting contest, sinking the ball four times in nine holes.

St. Cloud has invited the local players to combine with Little Falls on Sunday and go to St. Cloud. Every one is urged to get an early start, since the visitors are invited to arrive in time for lunch. Those who have signed up to go include Dr. W. A. Erickson, M. R. Smith, Dr. C. G. Nordin, W. R. Hiller, J. H. Krekelberg, E. W. Schmidt, M. E. Ryan, Edward J. Egan and Walter Cleary. At least three more are needed, and those who can make the trip are asked to get in touch at once with Mr. Egan or Dr. Erickson.

A report of Friday's tournament would be incomplete without a word of praise to the grounds committee for the excellent work it has done this spring, and the fine condition in which the grounds have been put. Much credit is due the committee, of which Dr. C. G. Nordin is chairman. Each member of this committee is working hard and the results of their efforts are already very evident, for the grounds are fast being whipped into shape. New machinery including a power mower and roller have been added this year, much new seeding has been done and the grounds otherwise improved.

If you find dinner on both sides of your vest, remove the spot with Blue Devil. 303t8mwf

"Not a Drum Was Heard" Pleases First Night Crowd, With Jones Leading

"Not a Drum Was Heard," but nobody cared last night at the Lyceum Theatre, when the William Fox picture of this story by Ben Ames Williams, opened a two day engagement. Plenty of applause and favorable comments were heard when the picture faded out, leaving Charles Jones and Betty Bouton to a happy future, in their parts, of course. It will be shown again tonight. The 2nd episode of "Leather Stocking" is also showing.

Many Thrills in Rex Beach Film

"Flowing Gold," the First National picture produced by Richard Walton Tully, showing at the New Park tonight and Sunday at regular prices offers real entertainment. You are certain to enjoy this exceptionally well directed and well produced story of the Texas oil fields.

"Flowing Gold" is a Rex Beach story, typically American and intensely human. The story has to do with the struggles of a family of impoverished "dry farm" nesters who finally strike oil in fabulous quantities and then indulge in a wild orgy of extravagance, finally "coming to earth" through the friendliness and counsel of Milton Sills in the role of Calvin Gray.

Sills has one of his greatest roles in this production, as does also Anna Q. Nilsson as Allegheny Briskow. Miss Nilsson may always be counted upon for a charming performance and in this role is given great opportunity for emotional as well as comedy work. She portrays the part of an awkward girl, bitter at the fates which made her so large and gawky and then mocked her by laying fabulous riches in her lap.

"His Children's Children" at the Lyceum

A picture with a wide range of scene and a story of great human interest is "His Children's Children," Sam Wood's Paramount screen version of Arthur Train's successful novel which will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre Sunday for three days. The cast is an extraordinary one and among the featured players are Bebe Daniels, Dorothy Mackaill, James Rennie and George Fawcett. The principal supporting players include Mahlon Hamilton, Warner Oland, John Davidson and Joe Burke.

The story, which deals with the foibles of modern society life, high finance, and parental neglect of children, gives wide scope for sympathetic and picturesque treatment. Scenes in the picture range from Wall street to the Denver freight yards with many others, including Long Island homes, English mansions, Broadway cafes, subways, elevated roads, beaches, Greenwich village, and Long Island hunting lodges. Dirèctor Wood asserts that the picture gives a more complete view of New York City and its life as a background for the gripping story than any production ever filmed.

Mitzi's Orchestra at the New Park Sunday Night

In connection with the big special picture, Rex Beach's "Flowing Gold," the New Park will present Mitzi's orchestra an origination of five clever musicians Sunday night at regular prices. To listen to this orchestra for an entire show is worth the admission price alone and the people of Brainerd should show their appreciation for a program like this by filing the New Park to capacity. ,

Mercerized Wool

Under high temperature and at high tension wool can, it is said, be successfully mercerized. The yarn is immersed for about five minutes in bisulphide of soda at a high temperature. Shrinking is prevented by a mechanical apparatus that holds the yarn at high tension. The tension is then relaxed and the yarn is boiled in a weak acid solution.

Director Wood asserts that the picture gives a more complete view of New York City and its life as a background for the gripping story than any production ever filmed.

Mitzi's Orchestra at the New Park Sunday Night

In connection with the big special picture, Rex Beach's "Flowing Gold," the New Park will present Mitzi's orchestra an origination of five clever musicians Sunday night at regular prices. To listen to this orchestra for an entire show is worth the admission price alone and the people of Brainerd should show their appreciation for a program like this by filing the New Park to capacity.

Mercerized Wool

Under high temperature and at high tension wool can, it is said, be successfully mercerized. The yarn is immersed for about five minutes in bisulphide of soda at a high temperature. Shrinking is prevented by a mechanical apparatus that holds the yarn at high tension. The tension is then relaxed and the yarn is boiled in a weak acid solution.

"MAY CONCERT" REVIEW GIVEN

VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL

All Selections Were Most Charmingly and Aristically Rendered

(Contributed)

"The pursuit and enjoyment of music call for the exercise, on the part of its devotees of three principal functions widely different. These are the functions of the composer, of the performer and of the listener.

"The composer is the source and motive power of all art—music. He seeks to give expression to musical ideas which shall call forth sympathetic feeling in those to whom the utterance is addressed.

"The second function necessary to the practice of music is that of the performer. It is of high importance, and in ideal instances may be artistic activity of a kind hardly lower than that of the composer, though wholly different in character. This also is a manifestation of a desire for utterance, of the craving to awaken sympathetic feeling in others. It calls for self control as well as for self-abandonment, for sympathy in the highest degree, and a two-fold sympathy—with the composer and with the audience—and for personal, magnetic power to such an extent that it is wholly natural people should lose all sight and sense of the composer, who is remote from them, and admire the work of the re-producing artist.

"The function of being a listener is largely misunderstood and usually undervalued. This sympathy of the audience is the mark at which both composer and performer are aiming. Genuine appreciation is often hard to identify or recognize.

"We are all musicians when we listen well."

In the above words Horatio Parker addressed his audience in the University of Music.

These words portray the audience that assembled at the Congregational church last evening to listen to the May concert arranged by several of the local music devotees.

Also the performers, Mrs. LaBar, Mrs. Erickson, Mrs. Whitney, Miss Carmichael, Mrs. Hoffman and Miss Sager of the double trio, with Mrs. Johnstone, Mrs. Knudsen, Miss Dean and the Misses Johnstone, instrumentalists, fulfilled their parts individually in such a markedly pleasing style that the coterie of composers from Germany, France, Finland and Russia, Italy, Poland, England, Canada and the U. S., all found expression thru the well arranged program presented.

The double trio rendered a group of songs expressing spring time, May time in all its warm harmony.

A very charmingly rendered group of piano solos by Elizabeth Johnstone surprised some of the members of the audience. This young lady displayed an attractive delierateness throughout her performance—a trait rarely present in youth. This self-control bespeaks future power as a soloist.

A thousand dollar program given recently included one trio number the violin, accompanied by the pipe organ and piano. Last evening three groups numbering five very difficult compositions by the composers Briglia, Moszkowski, Ganne, Mascagni and Chopin were rendered in a wonderfully pleasing manner. It is marvelous to listen to the delicate tones of the violin accompanied by the pipe organ and piano and at no time be aware of those tones being obliterated by the accompanists.

Miss Johnstone, Mrs. Knudsen and Mrs. Johnstone made up this trio of artists.

Mathews "Romance" included Miss Dean as cellist with the above named group. The effect was orchestral, the violen-cello furnishing the whole background. Unless you were present words cannot express to you a single idea of the depth of this musical expression.

Another number that must have a word of appreciation was the rendition of Rubenstein's "Kammenoi Ostrow" and "Serenata" by Moszkowski.

Close your eyes and cathedral music with choir and organ rendering prelude, chants and postludes, and the interludes of the Elizabethan age were all in their turn expressed by Mrs. Knudsen and Mrs. Johnstone through the pipe organ and piano in this number.

Oscar Wilde said, "The appreciation of music is a question of temperament, not teaching." We do not agree. Let us embody in our teaching of school music some recognition of musical form and all the biography possible with a clearer picture of the historical background of a few of our classical compositions.

Thus real joy from a power of appreciation comes into the lives of those who of themselves cannot perform upon any instrument.

Constipation is ruinous to children—keep yours healthy with Kellogg's Bran

Constipation undermines a child's health. It saps his energy and makes him listless. It can lead to more than 40 other serious diseases. Mothers should take immediate steps to remove, safely and surely, the dangerous poisons from his system.

Kellogg's Bran—because it is ALL bran—brings permanent relief. Nothing but ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective. That is why Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is universally recommended by doctors. They know it brings results.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to give permanent relief in the most chronic cases of constipation, or your grocer returns your money. Kellogg's Bran acts on the intestines exactly as nature acts. It sweeps and cleans and purifies them. It makes them function naturally and regularly. It allows you to discontinue forever the use of harmful, habit-forming drugs and pills.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is a delightful surprise to the taste—particularly if one has tried ordinary unpalatable brans. There is only one way you can get such assurance. You must see for yourself how it is engineered and built—and of what it is built.

Brake and clutch pedals are good examples of the safety built into the Hupmobile. They are drop-forged, double heat-treated steel, as are also the hand-brake and gear-shift levers, brake-rod clevises and toggles—much stronger and safer than the less costly low carbon steel or malleable castings which are often used at these points. For example, in a recent test, a cast brake pedal broke under 340 pounds pressure, while it required 570 pounds to break a Hupmobile drop-forged pedal.

BRAINERD TRIBUTE TO SOLDIER DEAD

Memorial Services Held at Evergreen Cemetery in the Morning

A MOST IMPOSING PARADE

Hon. M. Murray, Speaker of Day, Unable to be Present, and Rev. E. A. Cooke Officiated

Brainerd paid tribute to her soldier dead in appropriate Memorial exercises at Evergreen cemetery Friday morning. The day was clear and the weather ideal for the occasion, bringing out a record attendance for the parade, the services at the cemetery and those at the Laurel street bridge.

The parade formed at nine o'clock on South Sixth street. First in line came the color bearer, Burton Orne, in naval uniform, with Clyde E. Parker and W. V. Turcotte as guards, representing the army.

Directly following was the Brainerd Municipal band, lead by Director W. R. Hillier. Next came the Civil World War Veterans were lead by iliaries in automobiles, together with Rev. E. A. Cooke, Chaplain Rev. Walter Remmis, and Superintendent W. C. Cobb.

The Spanish War Veterans, the American Legion, ex-sailors and all World War Vetereans were lead by the American Legion drum corps. This drum corps deserves special mention, since it is a new organization in the city, and made a decidedly good impression in the Memorial program.

The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and school children of the city were lead by the Brainerd Boys' band, in charge of Director Hugo Pfieck. The band presented a fine appearance in the new uniforms and played very well during the long march.

John F. Elkins acted as marshal of the day, assisted by Kirk Smith, Clyde Parker and A. A. Gieriet, who deserve much credit for the manner in which the parade was handled. O. A. Peterson was in charge of the firing squad.

At the cemetery the following program was carried out:

Selection — Brainerd Municipal band.

Invocation—Rev. Father Remmis.

Proclamation—G. A. R. Commander Albert Fox.

"The Rosary"—American Legion Quartette.

Lincoln's Gettysburg Address—Virgil Quanstrom.

"America"—By assemblage.

Music—Brainerd Boys' band.

G. A. R. Ritualistic exercises, directed by Post Commander Albert Fox and Adjutant J. A. Wilson.

Music—Mixed High School chorus, directed by Miss Marion Opsahl.

Decoration of the cross—G. A. R. officers.

"Star Spangled Banner."

Salute by firing squad.

Taps.

Hon. M. Murray, of Sauk Rapids, was to have been speaker of the day, but was unfortunately detained, much to the regret of all. Rev. Cooke of the Methodist church was kind enough to take Mr. Murray's place and gave an eloquent address on the significance of Memorial Day.

At the conclusion of the services at the cemetery, the line of march was again taken up to the Mississippi river bridge on West Laurel street, where a short ceremony was held honoring the heroic naval and marine dead. This service was in charge of Rev. Cooke and B. S. Orne. A beautiful anchor of cut flowers was lowered to the river in loving memory of those who gave their lives in the navy and marine corps.

CONCRETE PAVING COSTS ARE GIVEN

City Engineer R. T. Campbell Presents Figures to the City Council

ESTIMATE $2.50 SQUARE YARD

Bid of S. A. Riches & Sons at $1.88 Plus Excavation Considered Reasonable

City Engineer R. T. Campbell in April presented figures to the city council on the cost of concrete paving. He gave as his estimate $2.50 per square yard, this figure to cover cost of paving, grading, drainage, inspection and enginenering work in connection with various projects under discussion at that time.

When the bid of S. A. Riches & Sons of $1.88 per square yard of paving, with 60c and 65c per cubic yard of excavation was received, it was the concensus of opinion that an extremely low price for paving was being received. Mr. Campbell estimates that the cost per square yard will approximate $2.20, and will include the respective items mentioned above.

It is estimated that, in reducing this to a front foot basis, on North Fourth street, which is a repaving job, the cost will be $2.45 per front foot; on North Sixth and South Seventh streets, which have 35 foot roadways, the cost will be $4.28 per front foot; on South Fifth street between Laurel and Maple streets, the cost will be $6.11 per front foot; on South Fifth street between Maple and Norwood streets, the cost will be $3.91 per front foot. To these costs should be added where necessary, the cost of constructing a concrete curb.

The portion of South Fifth street between Laurel and Maple streets has a roadway fifty feet in width, and the portion between Maple and Norwood has two roadways, each sixteen feet wide separated by an eight foot boulevard.

The bid for a bituminous surface on South Eighth street is just within the estimated cost as established by the city council, which was $1.50 per square yard. Using this price, the cost per front foot where the roadway is seventy feet in width, amounts to $3.89 per front foot; where the roadway is 58 feet in width, the cost will be $3.22 per front foot. Providing an 18-foot boulevard was established along Eighth street between Maple and Oak streets, the cost per front foot including the curb would be $2.32 per front foot.

The city council, at its regular meeting on Monday evening, will formally award the contracts for the paving of the streets above mentioned.

M. & I. TRAIN WAS DERAILED

Passenger Train No. 33, Northbound to International Falls, in Accident at 2:30 A. M.

TENDER, 5 CARS LEAVE TRACK

Believed That a Broken Rail May Have Caused the Accident

Minnesota & International passenger train No. 33, northbound to International Falls, was derailed about 2:30 o'clock Saturday morning, the tender of the engine and five cars leaving the track. It is reported that no one was injured, other than the passengers were badly shaken up.

The accident occurred at Milepost No. 56, one mile south of Cyphers. It is stated that the train was going down grade and was traveling at a fair rate of speed, consistent with the stop that was to be made for the station.

It is thought that a broken rail is responsible for the accident. The engine remained on the track, the tender, mail car, baggage car, smoker day coach and one sleeper being derailed. The last car, the sleeper to Bemidji, remained on the track. None of the coaches was overturned.

Engineer Fred Bispham was at the throttle and Conductor Jerome St. Cyr was in charge of the train.

Two wreckers are at work getting the train back on the track. One was sent from Bemidji, the other from Brainerd. The southbound passenger train from International Falls was on this side of No. 33 when the accident occurred, so was not delayed by the derailment. The passenger train from Kelliher, due in Brainerd about eleven o'clock in the morning, is on the north side of the derailed train, and will not move until the latter is back on the track. It is hoped to have things cleared away so that the afternoon train will not be delayed.

HAIL BLACK GOLD, DERBY WINNER, AS FREAK

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, May 31.—Luck and blind faith in hunches have been the predominating influences in the romance surrounding the career on the turf of Black Gold, the Kentucky Derby winner.

Fate seems to have played such a hand in directing the destiny of Mrs. R. M. Hoots' three-year-old colt that some horsemen feel that he may be a steed of the gods and another Man o' War.

Black Gold was willed into the equine world in the dying breath of R. M. Hoots, an oil prospector and a campaigner of a one-mare stable on the merry-go-round tracks in the west.

Before he died, Hoots asked as a special favor that Useeit, his 9-year-old mare, which had been ruled off the turf, be mated with a good stallion.

"Give her a chance and she'll give you a Derby winner," he said.

His wife promised to give the mare her chance and never to part with the offspring. The promised chance resulted in Black Gold, named after the oil that gushed out of the little Hoots place in Oklahoma and poured a million dollars on the widow.

Mrs. Hoots cares little for racing. She wanted her husband to give up, years before his death, the fascination that drew him to the turf, but he had his hunches and he played them, altough they didn't prove for him until after he had gone.

The widow is campaigning a stable consisting of Black Gold, a prince of the turf, and a little old plater that was willed her, only in memory of the man whose faith outlasted him.

Veteran horsemen, who have become weather-wrinkled by many days around many tracks, probably would ridicule the idea of a fable influence casting its magic spell around any old horse, but they put the same feeling in different words by regarding the Derby winner as a "freak horse."

Those who follow the orthodox rules of training thoroughbreds that prevail in the big Aancocas, Whitney, Bradley and other ranking stables, express the opinion that only a freak horse could live under the treatments of "Three Finger" Harry Webb, a Cherokee Indian. They say that only a freak horse could go out and do the things on the track that Black Gold has done when he was treated like the pinto of a boozed cow-puncher.

UNITED STATES RUGBY TEAM REAL OLYMPIC HEROES

Rugby football is one of the minor competitions on the Olympic sport program. Many Americans would not have known there was a team representing the United States in the Olympic rugby matches at Paris if the rotten treatment the Americans received from the French had not landed on the first page of all the big papers.

Perhaps it was fortunate that the poor sportsmanship of the French people did serve to advertise the American team, for without that publicity they might have fought and won, without recognition.

The American boys went to Antwerp in 1920, and won the Olympic rugby championship against tremendous odds. It was a great victory, but it never received the proper recognition.

Even the American newspapermen didn't have time in the hectic rush of covering tennis, track and field, swimming, wrestling and boxing, which were going on simultaneously, to give much attention to the football players.

One afternoon several American scribes were leaving the Antwerp stadium, rather weary after a tedious day of fighting for space on the cables, when they noticed a big squad of athletes, wearing American shields, working out on a field back of the stadium. It was not until one of them had inquired that it was learned that the American rugby team was in the football competition.

Of all the American athletes who won championship at Antwerp, the rugby football players received the least recognition and the smallest credit, although, under the circumstances, their accomplishment represented as much American spunk, grit and merit as was shown by any American athletes entered in the games.

This year, however, the American rugby team has earned the credit and the tribute that goes with a brilliant performance and their victory will go down as the most distinguished victory that can be won by the United States at Paris.

* * * * * * * * *

Consider what rugby is in the United States, what it is in the foreign countries and what an American victory means against such competition! Rugby is practically extinct in the Unted States. Since the big California universities went back to the American style of football about eight years ago, the game has been played only by a few college players who kept up competition merely for the exercise. When rugby was in vogue in this country it was confined exclusively to the state of California, and there were not more than five universities then engaged in the sport. Some of the California colleges play rugby now, but it is regarded so little that not even a minor sport letter is given to the players.

Many of the players who went to Paris and won the championship by beating the French team 17 to 3 had not played from the time they left Antwerp four years ago until they went out to train for this team.

Under these circumstances the Americans were presented with the same difficulties that a French baseball team would have in beating the pennant winner of a Class A league, let alone the winner of the world's series.

The actions of the crowd at Paris in hissing the players, inrulting the flag and drowning out the notes of the "Star Spangled Banner" were detestable in themselves, but they were despicable when all the facts of the case are considered.

BOYER WINS THE SPEED CLASSIC

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, May 31.—The Decoration Day 500-mile race on the motor speedway was made in record time and brought laurels of victory to two race drivers, Joe Boyer of Detroit and L. L. Corum of Indianapolis.

Boyer retired when his own car got into trouble, changed over to that of his teammate, Corum, and drove the last 233 miles, the crucial part of the whole race. According to the judges' decision Corum, who was in the driver's seat, will get the rich cash prize of about $30,000.

Boyer Smashed His Own Car

Indianapolis, May 31.—Honors of winning the fastest 500-mile race ever run at the Indianapolis motor speedway were divided today between Joe Boyer and L. L. Corum.

To Boyer went special credit for putting the Deusenberg special in first place after a terrible drive of mile after mile at a speed of from 100 to 104 miles an hour to overtake Earl Cooper, piloting a Studebaker special.

T. L. L. Corum went official credit for the win. Corum started the car and drove 106 laps, bringing it up from ninth to third place during the last 75 miles he was at the wheel.

The car in which Boyer started the race was smashed toward the end of the grind, with Ernie Ansterberg, relief driver, at the wheel, and under the rules the win cannot be credited to Boyer.

HOUR DAWNS FOR CARPENTIER-GIBBONS BOUT

TO MEET AT 4:30 O'CLOCK, CENTRAL STANDARD TIME

GIBBONS FAILS TO APPEAR FOR PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

(By United Press)

Michigan City, Ind., May 31.—Banks of cotton—light clouds and damp breezes carrying a threat of rain—floated over the sky blue arena here today as the time for the 10-round no decision battle between Georges Carpentier and Tommy Gibbons neared. Weak sunshine pierced the clouds.

Promoters of the fight plan to start the Carpentier-Gibbons fight at 3 p. m. central standard time—if rain appears imminent. Otherwise the regular program will be followed. This calls for the unadvertised program of four 4-round bouts to start at 2 and the regular advertised program to start at 3, thus bringing Carpentier and Gibbons into the arena between 4 and 4:30 central standard time.

Carpentier showed a flash of temper when Gibbons failed to appear for the official physical examination. Carpentier was examined and pronounced perfect. He refused to be weighed in without Gibbons, and when Gibbons failed to appear he stalked out.

Francois Deschamps, Carpentier's manager, exploded with wrath and showered the promoters with a volley of French, and then he too left.

The physicians waited until 10:45, an hour and 45 minutes after the time appointed for the examination, and then left without having heard from Gibbons or his manager. The physicians said they would force Gibbons to go through with the examination later.

WILL U. S. ATHLETES SHY AT THE WINE?

(By United Press)

Paris, May 31—The first temptation for Olympic athletes in Paris is the so-called "wine of honor," a flowing goblet of champagne, offered by the official reception department of the Olympic committee.

The idea is to brighten the greeting and make the muscular guests feel at home. Wine is not denied French athletes in their training, but what can Coach Robertson do when the bubbling bottle (or ottles) is broken in honor of the Americans? Will it be diplomatic for him to shun the honor and ask for water? And if he doesn't, what of his training rules?

But perhaps the committee members will be tolerant. They are kept hustling greeting the many different groups that arrive daily, and some days they feel that enough is enough, however good the champagne.

FIRST HERESY TRIAL OF BISHOP

SINCE MIDDLE AGES STAGED IN CLEVELAND, O., TODAY

(By United Press)

Cleveland, O., May 31—The first heresy trial of a bishop since the middle ages went to the tribunal of Protestant Episcopal bishops sitting in the case shortly after noon today.

The eight bishops of the tribunal, in the stately robes of their ecclesiastical office solemnly filed out of the golden oak lined court chamber of old Trinity Cathedral to determine whether Bishop William Montgomery Brown is guilty or not guilty of heresy. Presiding Judge John Gardner Murray said that court would be opened at 3 o'cock. A decision is expected at that time.

State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, in District Court, 15th Judicial District.
Seafield Exploration Company, a corporation, Plaintiff.
vs.
Barrows Mining Company, a corporation; Defendant.

The cause above entitled came on for hearing, before the undersigned, one of the judges of said Court, at Chambers, in the City of Brainerd, in said County, on May 10, 1924, at ten o'clock A. M., upon the petition of Mal Clark, receiver of defendant corporation, said Mal Clark appearing in his own behalf as such Receiver, and there being no appearance by or in behalf of the defendant or any other person or party interested therein, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that notice of this hearing has been duly given as required by the order of this Court therefor, and the Court, having considered the evidence presented, by affidavit and otherwise, and having duly considered the same, finds

AS FACTS:

That Mal Clark is the duly appointed, qualified and acting Receiver of the defendant corporation above named, under and pursuant to the provisions of Section 6634, General Statutes of Minnesota for the year 1913.

That the defendant above named is a corporation duly organized, created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Minnesota, and that the purpose for which said corporation was established and exists, is set out in the Articles of Incorporation thereof, as follows:

"The general nature of the business of this corporation shall be mining, smelting, reducing, refining or working of ores or minerals, buying, selling, leasig or otherwise dealing in mineral or other lands, drilling and otherwise exploring the same for ores or minerals, buying, selling and dealing in personal property of all kinds, loaning money and transacting all such other business as may be deemed advisable or convenient for the welfare of said corporation."

That said company, after incorporation, attempted to amend its articles of incorporation by changing paragraph one thereof to read as follows:

"The general nature of the business of this corporation shall be the mining, smelting, reducing, refining and working of iron ore and other minerals, and the manufacture of iron, steel, copper and other metals."

That said certificate of amendment was filed in the office of the Secretary of State on June 29, 1915, but that no proof of publication thereof was ever filed with said Secretary of State, and that said amendment was and is of no legal effect.

That under and by virtue of Section Three (3), Article Ten (10), of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, the stockholders of said defendant corporation are each liable to the creditors thereof to the amount of stock owned or held by them.

That the capital stock of said defendant corporation is Five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00), divided into five hundred thousand (500,000) shares of the par value of One Dollar ($1.00) each, of which 235,079 are issued and outstanding.

That said defendant corporation is, and at the time of the appointment of said Receiver herein was, indebted to various creditors in an amount aggregating Twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000.00); that it has ceased to transact business; that it is insolvent and that it has no assets, property or effects of any nature with which to pay its debts, save and except the superadded, statutory and constitutional liability of the stockholders of said defendant upon the shares of its capital stock that there were issued and outstanding at the time of the commencement of these proceedings.

That a large number of the stockholders of said defendant are not financially responsible and a judgment recovered on their liability could not be collected, and that many of said stockholders have no property of any kind not exempt from execution, and that in order to pay the debts of said defendant and the expenses of said receivership and of the enforcement and collection of said stockholders liability, it will be necessary to levy an assessment of twenty five cents (25c) a share against each stockholder.

From the Foregoing Facts, IT IS ORDERED, That an assessment of twenty five per cent (25 per cent) of the par value of each share of the capital stock of said defendant corporation, to-wit: the sum of twenty five cents (25c) on each share thereof, be, and the same hereby is, levied and assessed upon and against each and every share of said capital stock and upon and against each person or party liable as a stockholder of said corporation, for, upon, or on account of, their respective shares of stock, and that each and every person or party liable as such stockholder of said defendant corporation be, and he hereby is, directed and required to pay to Mal Clark, Receiver of said defendant corporation, at his office in the First National Bank Building, Brainerd, Minnesota, within thirty (30) days from the date of this order, the sum of Twenty five cents (25c) for and on account of each and every share of said stock for or upon which said person or party is liable as stockholder of said defendant, as aforesaid.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That said Mal Clark, as such Receiver, be, and he hereby is, authorized, empowered and directed to collect the amount so assessed, and upon failure of any one liable for such assessment to pay the same within the time prescribed, to prosecute an action against him whether a resident or non-resident, and wherever found, and he is further ordered to hold the amount so collected subject to the further order of this Court.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That said Receiver forthwith give notice of this assessment by publishing a copy of this order in The Brainerd Daily Dispatch once a week for two successive weeks, and by mailing a copy of this order to said corporation and to each of the stockholders thereof whose post-office address is known at this time to said Receiver or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained.

Dated at Brainerd, Minnesota, May 10, 1924.

C. W. STANTON,
District Judge.

HAIL BLACK GOLD, DERBY WINNER, AS FREAK

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, May 31.—Luck and blind faith in hunches have been the predominating influences in the romance surrounding the career on the turf of Black Gold, the Kentucky Derby winner.

Fate seems to have played such a hand in directing the destiny of Mrs. R. M. Hoots' three-year-old colt that some horsemen feel that he may be a steed of the gods and another Man o' War.

Black Gold was willed into the equine world in the dying breath of R. M. Hoots, an oil prospector and a campaigner of a one-mare stable on the merry-go-round tracks in the west.

Before he died, Hoots asked as a special favor that Useeit, his 9-year-old mare, which had been ruled off the turf, be mated with a good stallion.

"Give her a chance and she'll give you a Derby winner," he said.

His wife promised to give the mare her chance and never to part with the offspring. The promised chance resulted in Black Gold, named after the oil that gushed out of the little Hoots place in Oklahoma and poured a million dollars on the widow.

Mrs. Hoots cares little for racing. She wanted her husband to give up, years before his death, the fascination that drew him to the turf, but he had his hunches and he played them, altough they didn't prove for him until after he had gone.

The widow is campaigning a stable consisting of Black Gold, a prince of the turf, and a little old plater that was willed her, only in memory of the man whose faith outlasted him.

Veteran horsemen, who have become weather-wrinkled by many days around many tracks, probably would ridicule the idea of a fable influence casting its magic spell around any old horse, but they put the same feeling in different words by regarding the Derby winner as a "freak horse."

Those who follow the orthodox rules of training thoroughbreds that prevail in the big Aancocas, Whitney, Bradley and other ranking stables, express the opinion that only a freak horse could live under the treatments of "Three Finger" Harry Webb, a Cherokee Indian. They say that only a freak horse could go out and do the things on the track that Black Gold has done when he was treated like the pinto of a boozed cow-puncher.

UNITED STATES RUGBY TEAM REAL OLYMPIC HEROES

Rugby football is one of the minor competitions on the Olympic sport program. Many Americans would not have known there was a team representing the United States in the Olympic rugby matches at Paris if the rotten treatment the Americans received from the French had not landed on the first page of all the big papers.

Perhaps it was fortunate that the poor sportsmanship of the French people did serve to advertise the American team, for without that publicity they might have fought and won, without recognition.

The American boys went to Antwerp in 1920, and won the Olympic rugby championship against tremendous odds. It was a great victory, but it never received the proper recognition.

Even the American newspapermen didn't have time in the hectic rush of covering tennis, track and field, swimming, wrestling and boxing, which were going on simultaneously, to give much attention to the football players.

One afternoon several American scribes were leaving the Antwerp stadium, rather weary after a tedious day of fighting for space on the cables, when they noticed a big squad of athletes, wearing American shields, working out on a field back of the stadium. It was not until one of them had inquired that it was learned that the American rugby team was in the football competition.

Of all the American athletes who won championship at Antwerp, the rugby football players received the least recognition and the smallest credit, although, under the circumstances, their accomplishment represented as much American spunk, grit and merit as was shown by any American athletes entered in the games.

This year, however, the American rugby team has earned the credit and the tribute that goes with a brilliant performance and their victory will go down as the most distinguished victory that can be won by the United States at Paris.

* * * * * * * * *

Consider what rugby is in the United States, what it is in the foreign countries and what an American victory means against such competition' Rugby is practically extinct in the Unted States. Since the big California universities went back to the American style of football about eight years ago, the game has been played only by a few college players who kept up competition merely for the exercise. When rugby was in vogue in this country it was confined exclusively to the state of California, and there were not more than five universities then engaged in the sport. Some of the California colleges play rugby now, but it is regarded so little that not even a minor sport letter is given to the players.

Many of the players who went to Paris and won the championship by beating the French team 17 to 3 had not played from the time they left Antwerp four years ago until they went out to train for this team.

Under these circumstances the Americans were presented with the same difficulties that a French baseball team would have in beating the pennant winner of a Class A league, let alone the winner of the world's series.

The actions of the crowd at Paris in hissing the players, inrulting the flag and drowning out the notes of the "Star Spangled Banner" were detestable in themselves, but they were despicable when all the facts of the case are considered.

BOYER WINS THE SPEED CLASSIC

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, May 31.—The Decoration Day 500-mile race on the motor speedway was made in record time and brought laurels of victory to two race drivers, Joe Boyer of Detroit and L. L. Corum of Indianapolis.

Boyer retired when his own car got into trouble, changed over to that of his teammate, Corum, and drove the last 233 miles, the crucial part of the whole race. According to the judges' decision Corum, who was in the driver's seat, will get the rich cash prize of about $30,000.

Boyer Smashed His Own Car

Indianapolis, May 31.—Honors of winning the fastest 500-mile race ever run at the Indianapolis motor speedway were divided today between Joe Boyer and L. L. Corum.

To Boyer went special credit for putting the Deusenberg special in first place after a terrible drive of mile after mile at a speed of from 100 to 104 miles an hour to overtake Earl Cooper, piloting a Studebaker special.

T. L. L. Corum went official credit for the win. Corum started the car and drove 106 laps, bringing it up from ninth to third place during the last 75 miles he was at the wheel.

The car in which Boyer started the race was smashed toward the end of the grind, with Ernie Ansterberg, relief driver, at the wheel, and under the rules the win cannot be credited to Boyer.

HOUR DAWNS FOR CARPENTIER-GIBBONS BOUT

TO MEET AT 4:30 O'CLOCK, CENTRAL STANDARD TIME

GIBBONS FAILS TO APPEAR FOR PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

(By United Press)

Michigan City, Ind., May 31.—Banks of cotton—light clouds and damp breezes carrying a threat of rain—floated over the sky blue arena here today as the time for the 10-round no decision battle between Georges Carpentier and Tommy Gibbons neared. Weak sunshine pierced the clouds.

Promoters of the fight plan to start the Carpentier-Gibbons fight at 3 p. m. central standard time—if rain appears imminent. Otherwise the regular program will be followed. This calls for the unadvertised program of four 4-round bouts to start at 2 and the regular advertised program to start at 3, thus bringing Carpentier and Gibbons into the arena between 4 and 4:30 central standard time.

Carpentier showed a flash of temper when Gibbons failed to appear for the official physical examination. Carpentier was examined and pronounced perfect. He refused to be weighed in without Gibbons, and when Gibbons failed to appear he stalked out.

Francois Deschamps, Carpentier's manager, exploded with wrath and showered the promoters with a volley of French, and then he too left.

The physicians waited until 10:45, an hour and 45 minutes after the time appointed for the examination, and then left without having heard from Gibbons or his manager. The physicians said they would force Gibbons to go through with the examination later.

WILL U. S. ATHLETES SHY AT THE WINE?

(By United Press)

Paris, May 31—The first temptation for Olympic athletes in Paris is the so-called "wine of honor," a flowing goblet of champagne, offered by the official reception department of the Olympic committee.

The idea is to brighten the greeting and make the muscular guests feel at home. Wine is not denied French athletes in their training, but what can Coach Robertson do when the bubbling bottle (or ottles) is broken in honor of the Americans? Will it be diplomatic for him to shun the honor and ask for water? And if he doesn't, what of his training rules?

But perhaps the committee members will be tolerant. They are kept hustling greeting the many different groups that arrive daily, and some days they feel that enough is enough, however good the champagne.

FIRST HERESY TRIAL OF BISHOP

SINCE MIDDLE AGES STAGED IN CLEVELAND, O., TODAY

(By United Press)

Cleveland, O., May 31—The first heresy trial of a bishop since the middle ages went to the tribunal of Protestant Episcopal bishops sitting in the case shortly after noon today.

The eight bishops of the tribunal, in the stately robes of their ecclesiastical office solemnly filed out of the golden oak lined court chamber of old Trinity Cathedral to determine whether Bishop William Montgomery Brown is guilty or not guilty of heresy. Presiding Judge John Gardner Murray said that court would be opened at 3 o'cock. A decision is expected at that time.

State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, in District Court, 15th Judicial District.
Seafield Exploration Company, a corporation, Plaintiff.
vs.
Barrows Mining Company, a corporation; Defendant.

The cause above entitled came on for hearing, before the undersigned, one of the judges of said Court, at Chambers, in the City of Brainerd, in said County, on May 10, 1924, at ten o'clock A. M., upon the petition of Mal Clark, receiver of defendant corporation, said Mal Clark appearing in his own behalf as such Receiver, and there being no appearance by or in behalf of the defendant or any other person or party interested therein, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that notice of this hearing has been duly given as required by the order of this Court therefor, and the Court, having considered the evidence presented, by affidavit and otherwise, and having duly considered the same, finds

AS FACTS:

That Mal Clark is the duly appointed, qualified and acting Receiver of the defendant corporation above named, under and pursuant to the provisions of Section 6634, General Statutes of Minnesota for the year 1913.

That the defendant above named is a corporation duly organized, created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Minnesota, and that the purpose for which said corporation was established and exists, is set out in the Articles of Incorporation thereof, as follows:

"The general nature of the business of this corporation shall be mining, smelting, reducing, refining or working of ores or minerals, buying, selling, leasig or otherwise dealing in mineral or other lands, drilling and otherwise exploring the same for ores or minerals, buying, selling and dealing in personal property of all kinds, loaning money and transacting all such other business as may be deemed advisable or convenient for the welfare of said corporation."

That said company, after incorporation, attempted to amend its articles of incorporation by changing paragraph one thereof to read as follows:

"The general nature of the business of this corporation shall be the mining, smelting, reducing, refining and working of iron ore and other minerals, and the manufacture of iron, steel, copper and other metals."

That said certificate of amendment was filed in the office of the Secretary of State on June 29, 1915, but that no proof of publication thereof was ever filed with said Secretary of State, and that said amendment was and is of no legal effect.

That under and by virtue of Section Three (3), Article Ten (10), of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, the stockholders of said defendant corporation are each liable to the creditores thereof to the amount of stock owned or held by them.

That the capital stock of said defendant corporation is Five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00), divided into five hundred thousand (500,000) shares of the par value of One Dollar ($1.00) each, of which 235,079 are issued and outstanding.

That said defendant corporation is, and at the time of the appointment of said Receiver herein was, indebted to various creditors in an amount aggregating Twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000.00); that it has ceased to transact business; that it is insolvent and that it has no assets, property or effects of any nature with which to pay its debts, save and except the superadded, statutory and constitutional liability of the stockholders of said defendant upon the shares of its capital stock that there were issued and outstanding at the time of the commencement of these proceedings.

That a large number of the stockholders of said defendant are not financially responsible and a judgment recovered on their liability could not be collected, and that many of said stockholders have no property of any kind not exempt from execution, and that in order to pay the debts of said defendant and the expenses of said receivership and of the enforcement and collection of said stockholders liability, it will be necessary to levy an assessment of twenty five cents (25c) a share against each stockholder.

From the Foregoing Facts, IT IS ORDERED, That an assessment of twenty five per cent (25 per cent) of the par value of each share of the capital stock of said defendant corporation, to-wit: the sum of twenty five cents (25c) on each share thereof, be, and the same hereby is, levied and assessed upon and against each and every share of said capital stock and upon and against each person or party liable as a stockholder of said corporation, for, upon, or on account of, their respective shares of stock, and that each and every person or party liable as such stockholder of said defendant corporation be, and he hereby is, directed and required to pay to Mal Clark, Receiver of said defendant corporation, at his office in the First National Bank Building, Brainerd, Minnesota, within thirty (30) days from the date of this order, the sum of Twenty five cents (25c) for and on account of each and every share of said stock for or upon which said person or party is liable as stockholder of said defendant, as aforesaid.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That said Mal Clark, as such Receiver, be, and he hereby is, authorized, empowered and directed to collect the amount so assessed, and upon failure of any one liable for such assessment to pay the same within the time prescribed, to prosecute an action against him whether a resident or non-resident, and wherever found, and he is further ordered to hold the amount so collected subject to the further order of this Court.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That said Receiver forthwith give notice of this assessment by publishing a copy of this order in The Brainerd Daily Dispatch once a week for two successive weeks, and by mailing a copy of this order to said corporation and to each of the stockholders thereof whose post-office address is known at this time to said Receiver or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained.

Dated at Brainerd, Minnesota, May 10, 1924.

C. W. STANTON,
District Judge.
